

EFMI Special Topic Conference STC 2011

E-salus trans confinia sine finibus

e-Health Across Borders Without Boundaries

14 - 15 April 2011

Laško, Slovenia

Dear colleagues, dear friends,

The European Federation of Medical Informatics (EFMI) and the Slovenian Medical Informatics Society (SDMI) invites you to the EFMI STC2011 Conference which will be held on 14 and 15 April 2011 in Laško, Slovenia.

The theme of the STC 2011 is “E-salus trans confinia sine finibus – e-Health across Borders without Boundaries”, addressing a range of important aspects of trans-border e-Health services, like Knowledge Representation, Patient Empowerment, Social Care, or Cross-border Interoperability.

The conference will be opened with an excellent keynote. During the conference invited speakers will be presenting cross-border e-Health issues from international perspective and e-Health interoperability across borders. There will be presentations of 21 papers and 9 posters as well as 3 workshops, all given by top professionals.

The scientific topics comprise interregional health information systems and applications, cross-border e-Health projects, patient and cross-border e-Health systems, multi-language and cultural issues in e-Health system, international standardization, assessment of e-Health systems, safety and security aspects of interconnected e-Health systems, e-communications in a global community, and cross-border education in health informatics.

The event will take place in an old small Slovenian town of Laško in a new hotel & conference centre with a spa. The Local organizing committee will take care of all the conference details enabling a very pleasant stay to all the participants. The Social Programme included in the registration fee will help you not only making new acquaintances and friends, but also there will be several possibilities for exploring early spring time of the hosting town and nearby places in the heart of Slovenia.

The conference is held under the auspices Ministry of Health of Republic of Slovenia and supported by:

HL7 International, IBM Slovenia, Marand d.o.o. & Roche
